No problem. Just one of those weeks (and not having my computer for the end of the day yesterday did not help!). But it's fine.

Thought the brief overall was good. I asked Steve and he wanted me to forward it. He may or may not have a chance to look at it.

By the way, I have a new case for you to take over from Karyn. I'll stop by later if I have a chance; otherwise, we'll catch up on it next week if that works for you. It's the Cargill Saltworks "special case". Lots of history here and some really great maps!! ☺

Thanks.
